1       it -- I don't know that you've looked at it -- and file an
2       administrative motion attaching any response. It should not
3       be long -- in fact, it shouldn't be longer than ten pages --
4       asking for permission to file a response given that it was 5       filed just yesterday.

6               MS. PREVOST: Thank you, Your Honor.

7               THE COURT: I understand that it's -- I haven't had a
8       chance to look at it myself because it was just filed
9       yesterday, so I don't know if it's just a repeat of everything
10      or not. I don't know what's in it.

11              MS. PREVOST: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

12              THE COURT: All right.

13              Anything else? Mr. Zapala?

14              Mr. Amato?

15              MR. ZAPALA: I don't think so, Your Honor. On that 16      last point, we were trying to do the same thing. We just 17      didn't have sufficient time to determine whether it was any 18      different than anything Mr. Orr previously submitted, but 19      we'll follow the court's direction on that.

20              Want to thank the court, its staff, and then all the 21      colleagues on the call for convening this call. I know it's a
22      difficult time for everybody. We appreciate you doing this 23      remotely.

24              THE COURT: Well, like I said, we're trying to keep 25      things moving in this district. I've done Markmans. I've

1 done tutorials. I will probably do a bench trial. We're not
2 going to shut the courts down. We're not going to shut down
3 access. So we'll keep moving as best we can.

4 Everybody, stay safe. I know it's difficult out there.

5 We're adjourned on this call. Thank you.
